

6516205687.txt

This seems to be another attempt to force satellite radio operators to spend more money defending there rights and force them out of the business. However as a listener of xm radio as well as local broadcasters i feel there should be compitition for my time and advertisers money and the only real answer is to let this happen in the open market and not be regulated away by a powerfull lobby. thank you for your time . sincerly Glen Dobbs.